ABOUT THE BOOK

This comprehensive Florida travel guidebook offers a complete listing of Florida wineries, plus stories of the winemakers from St. Augustine to Pensacola, including the fast-growing Gainesville and Ocala area. Here you'll meet the fascinating people behind the scenes who dedicate their lives to growing grapes and creating liquid art for the rest of us to enjoy. Learn where the first wine in America was made, what kinds of grapes grow in Florida, where wine research is being done today, and how the Florida wine industry is growing.

Each chapter includes a listing of things to do near the winery with complete contact information. There are also listings for area chambers of commerce, CVBs, and tourist information bureaus. You'll find local attractions, shopping, state parks, historic sites, bed and breakfast inns, outdoor activities, museums, art galleries, places to eat and more. The book is indexed for quick reference, with 135 photos and illustrations, including a map of the wineries. There is also a listing of regional wine festivals, a section of cooking with wine recipes to try at home, and a list of the Central and South Florida wineries so you can extend your road trip even further.

More than a guidebook, Florida Wine Country Guide to Northern Wineries includes the history of wine making and a chapter on some of the recent wine and health research being done with grapes. A great guide to keep in your car, or for armchair travel, this book is for everyone who likes wine and likes to travel.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Pamela Watson is a freelance writer and editor whose travel articles, business news, and features have appeared in newspapers and magazines across the country, as well as on the web. She is the author/co-author of seven travel guidebooks, three city-guide podcasts for Tours4Mobile.com, and blogs at SouthernWineTrails.net. Pamela hates to cook, loves to eat, and although she's been drinking wine longer than she's been writing about it, she finds that wine travel makes a great daytrip or weekend getaway.
